

Dear Colleagues,

we would like to inform you about Estonian architects and interior architects summer seminar – and invite you to take part in it. Let us create a tradition to meet every summer and communicate with colleagues from Baltic countries and Finland! Small start was made last year in Jurmala, Latvia.

Topic of the seminar is „Public spaces and art“.

Dates: June 28-29, 2014

Place: Mändjala camping site on Saaremaa, the biggest island of Estonia.

The main speaker is from foreign architecture company (will be confirmed soon).

One of the speakers is Valdur Mikita (photo right), Estonian semiotician.

In addition one artist from Estonia.

Moderator of the seminar / of the day is Anatoli Tafitšuk (photo below), Estonian actor and TV-presenter (of Ukrainian origin).

In addition to the seminar different sportive and less sportive games will be organized – there will be traditional architects' photo hunt and also a landscape game.

It is possible to play different ball games, try kite surf or sup surf.

The seminar is a family event, during the speeches children can play sportive games with a guy who is judo coach and surf instructor.

In the evening a beach party will take place. There is also a possibility to go to sauna.

On the second day we will make a small round trip in Saaremaa, to search and look modern architecture there.

Exact program will be confirmed in 2-3 weeks.

About Mändjala camping site – it is located on island Saaremaa, approx. 15 km from Kuressaare and has been built 1973-1979, there are 69 buildings all together. Main part of them was designed by architect Liina Jaanus, interior design Piret Mudist. Estonian National Heritage Board has suggested to take whole camping site under protection.

Participation fee is 45 euros until June 1, after that 50 euros per person.

Children under 12 – free.

Fee includes: accommodation in Mändjala, 1 lunch, 1 dinner, 1 breakfast, round trip in Saaremaa and full program of the event.

It is our great pleasure to invite our Latvian, Lithuanian and Finnish colleagues to join us – you are most welcome!

We appreciate, if you spread this information among your members. Thank you!

Sincerely
